

JOHN T. MATTHIAS, Esq.

Principal Court Management Consultant

jmatthias@ncsc.dni.us

Work Experience

Mr. Matthias has led and participated in process analysis and improvement, and systems requirements-gathering projects in 30 states and internationally. Areas of expertise include court operations; case management systems for courts, prosecution and integrated justice; business process modeling; collection of fines and fees; and court videoconferencing.

Education

Justice Information Exchange Model 4.0 Program Certificate, 2008
ICM Fellow, Court Executive Development Program, 1997
Certified Document Imaging Architect, CompTIA, 1997
J.D., New York Law School, 1979
M.A., Seton Hall University, 1974
B.A., University of Iowa, 1971

Highlights of NCSC Projects

- Reno and Sparks Justice Courts, Nevada, CMS Requirements, RFP and Procurement, 2007-08.
- Cuyahoga County, Ohio, Videoconferencing Expansion Evaluation, 2007-08.
- Pasco County, Florida, CJIS Requirements, 2007.
- South Dakota IT Strategic Planning, 2006.
- Milwaukee Circuit Court Performance Evaluation, 2006.
- Lake County, Indiana, Operations and Business Process Analysis, 2006.
- Chatham County, Georgia, IT Review, 2006.
- Garland, Texas, Municipal Court, Workflow Automation Improvement, 2006

Selected Books and Publications

- “E-Filing Expansion in State, Local, and Federal Courts” in Future Trends in State Court 2007.
- “TeleJustice - Videoconferencing for the 21st Century”. Co-author (Published for 5th National Court Technology Conference CTC5, 1997)
- “Current Practices in Collecting Fines and Fees: A Report of the National Technical Assistance Program”. Principal author (National Center for State Courts, 1995)
- “Planning, Acquiring, and Implementing Court Automation: A Monograph of the Court Automation Performance Standards Project”. Co-author with others. (National Center for State Courts, 1992)

Presentations

- Court Technology Conference (CTC10): “Workflow: The Next Step of Case Management System Evolution”, October 2007 (co-author).
- Institute for Court Management Workshop: “Collecting Fines and Fees” (2½ days). Twice annually 1993-1998
- 1997 ABA Traffic Court Seminar. “Fine Collection, Modern Technology”
- Court Technology Conference (CTC5). “TeleJustice – Videoconferencing for the 21st Century,” September, 1997

Bar Affiliations and Professional Membership

- State Bar of Texas (1980)
- Iowa State Bar Association (1985)
- National Association for Court Management (1992)