

LAWRENCE P. WEBSTER

Principal Court Management Consultant

lwebster@ncsc.dni.us

Work Experience

Mr. Webster previously managed the Justice Information Exchange Model (JIEM) project for SEARCH, served as Delaware's State Court Administrator, Executive Director of Court Technology Programs at the National Center for State Courts, and Director of Data Processing for the Utah courts.

Education

Fellow, Institute for Court Management, 1996

Graduate, Court Technology Certificate Program, ICM, 1996

24 semester hours toward D.P.A. degree, University of Colorado at Denver, 1983-1985

M.S.J.A., University of Denver College of Law, Judicial Administration, 1980

B.G.S. cum laude, Weber State College, 1979

A.A., Weber State College, 1978

Highlights of NCSC Projects

Mr. Webster has recently worked on an electronic document management project for the Iowa judicial branch, a review of the appellate court clerk's office in Alaska, an assessment of drug court information technology in Hawaii, CIO mentoring in Vermont, and IT reviews in the Mesa, Arizona Municipal Court, Chatham County, Georgia, North Dakota, and Montgomery County, Ohio. In addition, he has been involved in courthouse design and renovation projects in Mesa, Arizona and Marion County, Oregon.

Selected Books and Publications

- Hawaii Drug Court Information Technology Needs Assessment, National Center for State Courts, 2006
- Roadmap for Integrated Justice: A Guide for Planning and Management (SEARCH, 2004)
- Information Technology Management Core Competency Curriculum Guideline, (National Association for Court Management, 2003)
- How Can Court Leaders Use Technology to Address the Justice Needs of a Multicultural Society in the 21st Century, Symposium 2000: The Third National Symposium on Court Management, 2000
- A Guidebook for Electronic Court Filing (with J. Douglas Walker and James E. McMillan), West Group, Inc., 1998
- Automating Court Systems, National Center for State Courts, 1997

Presentations

- Business Modeling for Courthouse Design, Washington Court Leadership Spring Program, May 2006
- The Business Case for Justice System Integration, NACM Annual Conference, July 2005
- Caught in Converging Technologies: The Modern Court Administrator and the Privacy/Access/Security Conundrum, Sixth National Court Technology Conference, September 1999
- "Unbundling" the Courthouse: New Design Strategies for Bridging Tradition and Technology (with Todd Phillips and Charles Boxwell), American Institute of Architects National Convention, May 1998

Bar Affiliations and Professional Membership

- National Association for Court Management