

Court Interpreting Consortium Certification Staff Research Services

Consortium for Language Access In the Courts Staff

The National Center for State Courts serves as staff to the Consortium under the direction and supervision of the Executive Committee. The Consortium staff processes applications for new memberships; receives and accounts for state fees and other Consortium revenues; processes and accounts for all Consortium expenditures; acts as the test repository, storing all scripts, test scores and test tapes; supervises the writing of new tests; trains member personnel in procedures for proper test administration; prepares grant applications; and help set policy and direction for the Consortium.
